Mr. Hilton J. Otero
Principal

Throughout our years at Arts High, we all have changed. We have all grown up able to understand that sometimes there are more important things in life than just laughing, playing, partying and joking around. You, Mr. Otero, have helped us a great deal in understanding that. Thank you.

Mr. Alfredo Gentile
Vice Principal

Mr. Gentile, we would like to take this time to express our deepest appreciation for all you have done for the senior class over the course of the last four years. Thank you for your time and your very much appreciated advice and counseling.

Department Chairpersons

Mr. Seymour Heck, English

Mr. Nicholas Santoro, Music

Miss Eleta Caldwell, Art

Mrs. Marion Bolden, Math and Science

Mrs. Judith Barrett, Guidance

To Mrs. Abend and Ms. Williams:

Words cannot express our feelings of thanks and gratitude for your coming and taking us under your wings when no one else would. It is hard to believe that you've been with us for two years and put up with our jokes, laughter, and immaturity. What you've done is to help us develop stronger minds and character. Thanks for everything. We'll miss you a lot.

The Class of 1987

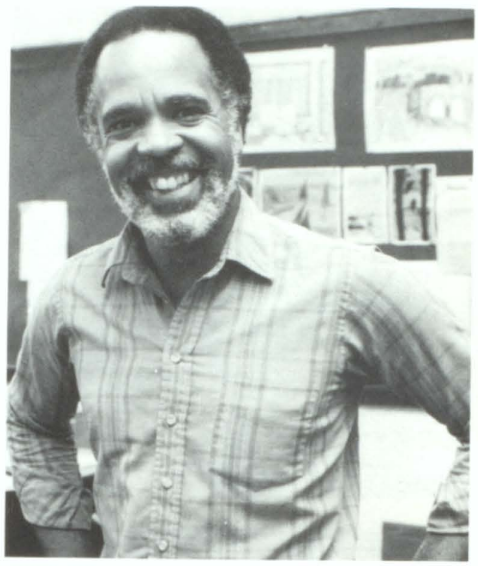

Mr. Carden;

The entire yearbook staff would like to thank you for pushing us to get everything done. We also thank you for all of those Saturday mornings when we were supposed to be here early but were late for the meetings. Finally we would like to especially thank you for not giving up on us. We love you Papa.

The Class of 1987.

Mr. Terrance Elman

Ms. Mary Soriano

Mrs. Geraldine Uzzell

Mrs. Barrett, Ms. Soriano, Mr. Elman, and Mrs. Uzzell have seen us grow throughout the past four years. They have played a huge role in that growth. As freshmen we were introduced to our counselors, not realizing their enormous value. Through the years they have been there for us, advising us, sometimes even nagging us, making sure we perform to our fullest potential. We realize now what on asset they have been to us, and we are proud of all the faithful service and guidance we've received.

Black Butterfly

Morning light, silken dreams take flight
As the darkness is awakened to the dawn
You survived, now your moment has arrived
Now your dreams have finally been born.

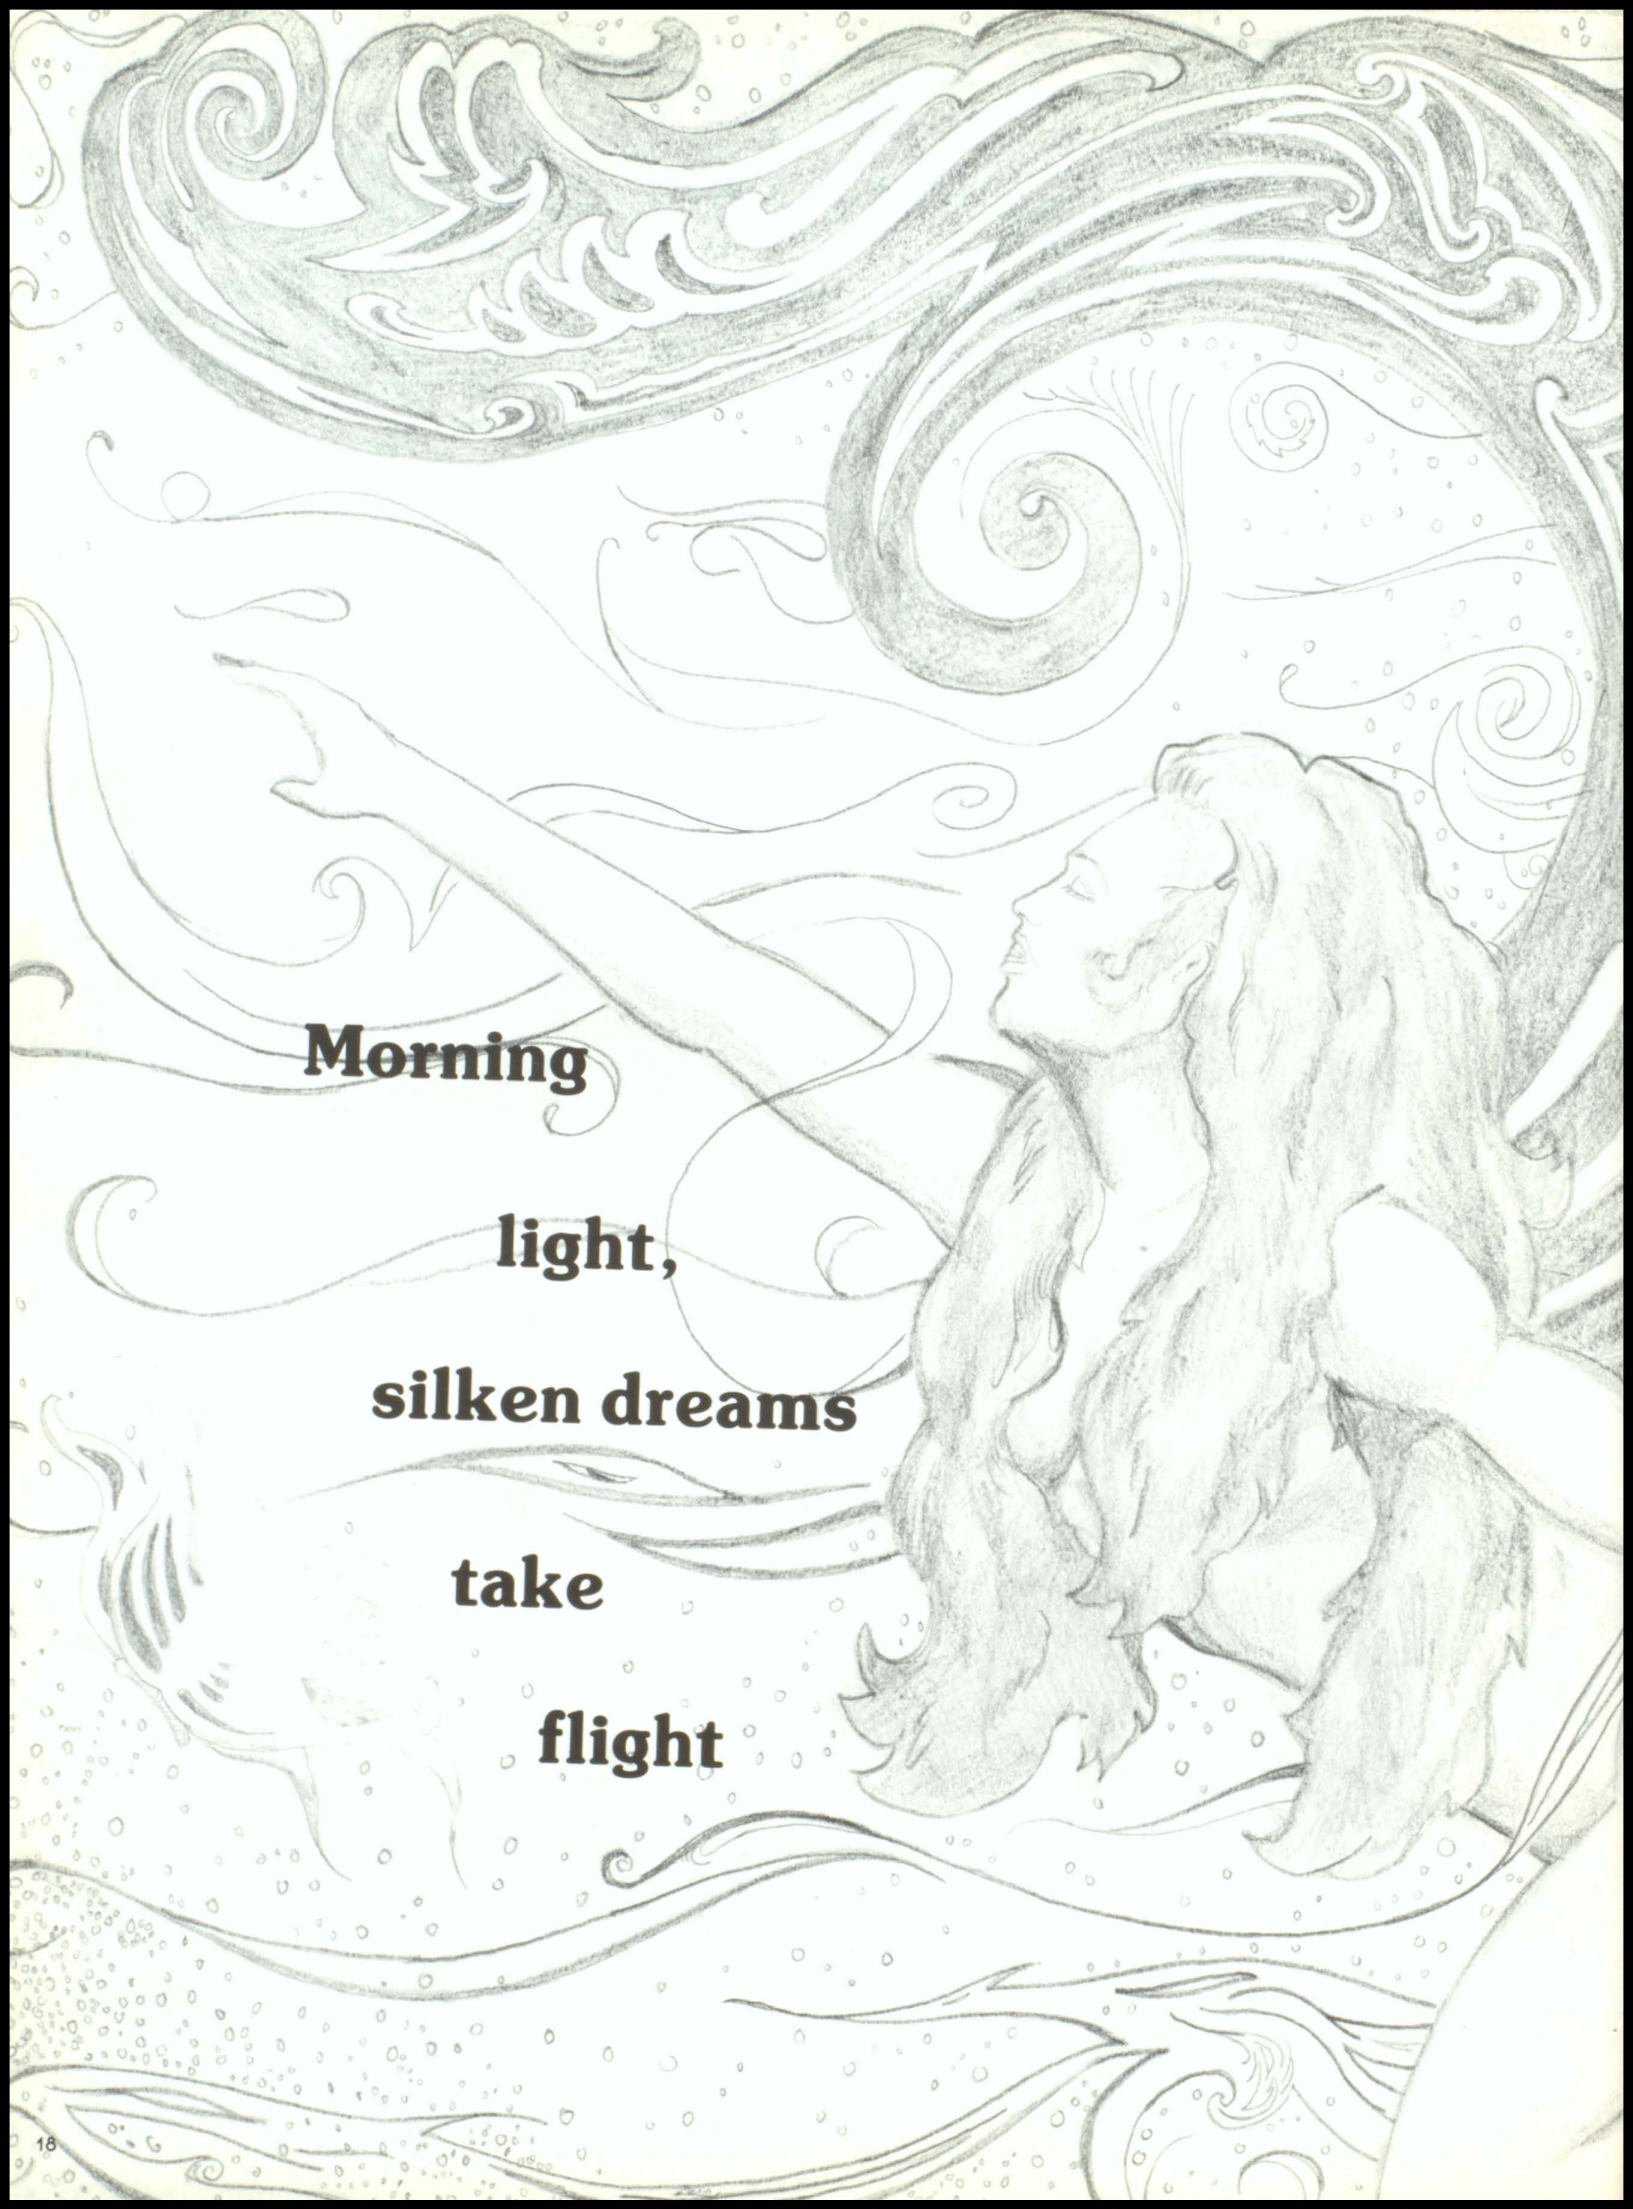

Black butterfly, sail across the waters
Tell your sons and daughters what the struggle brings
Black butterfly, set the skies on fire
Rise up even higher
So the ageless winds of time can catch your wings.

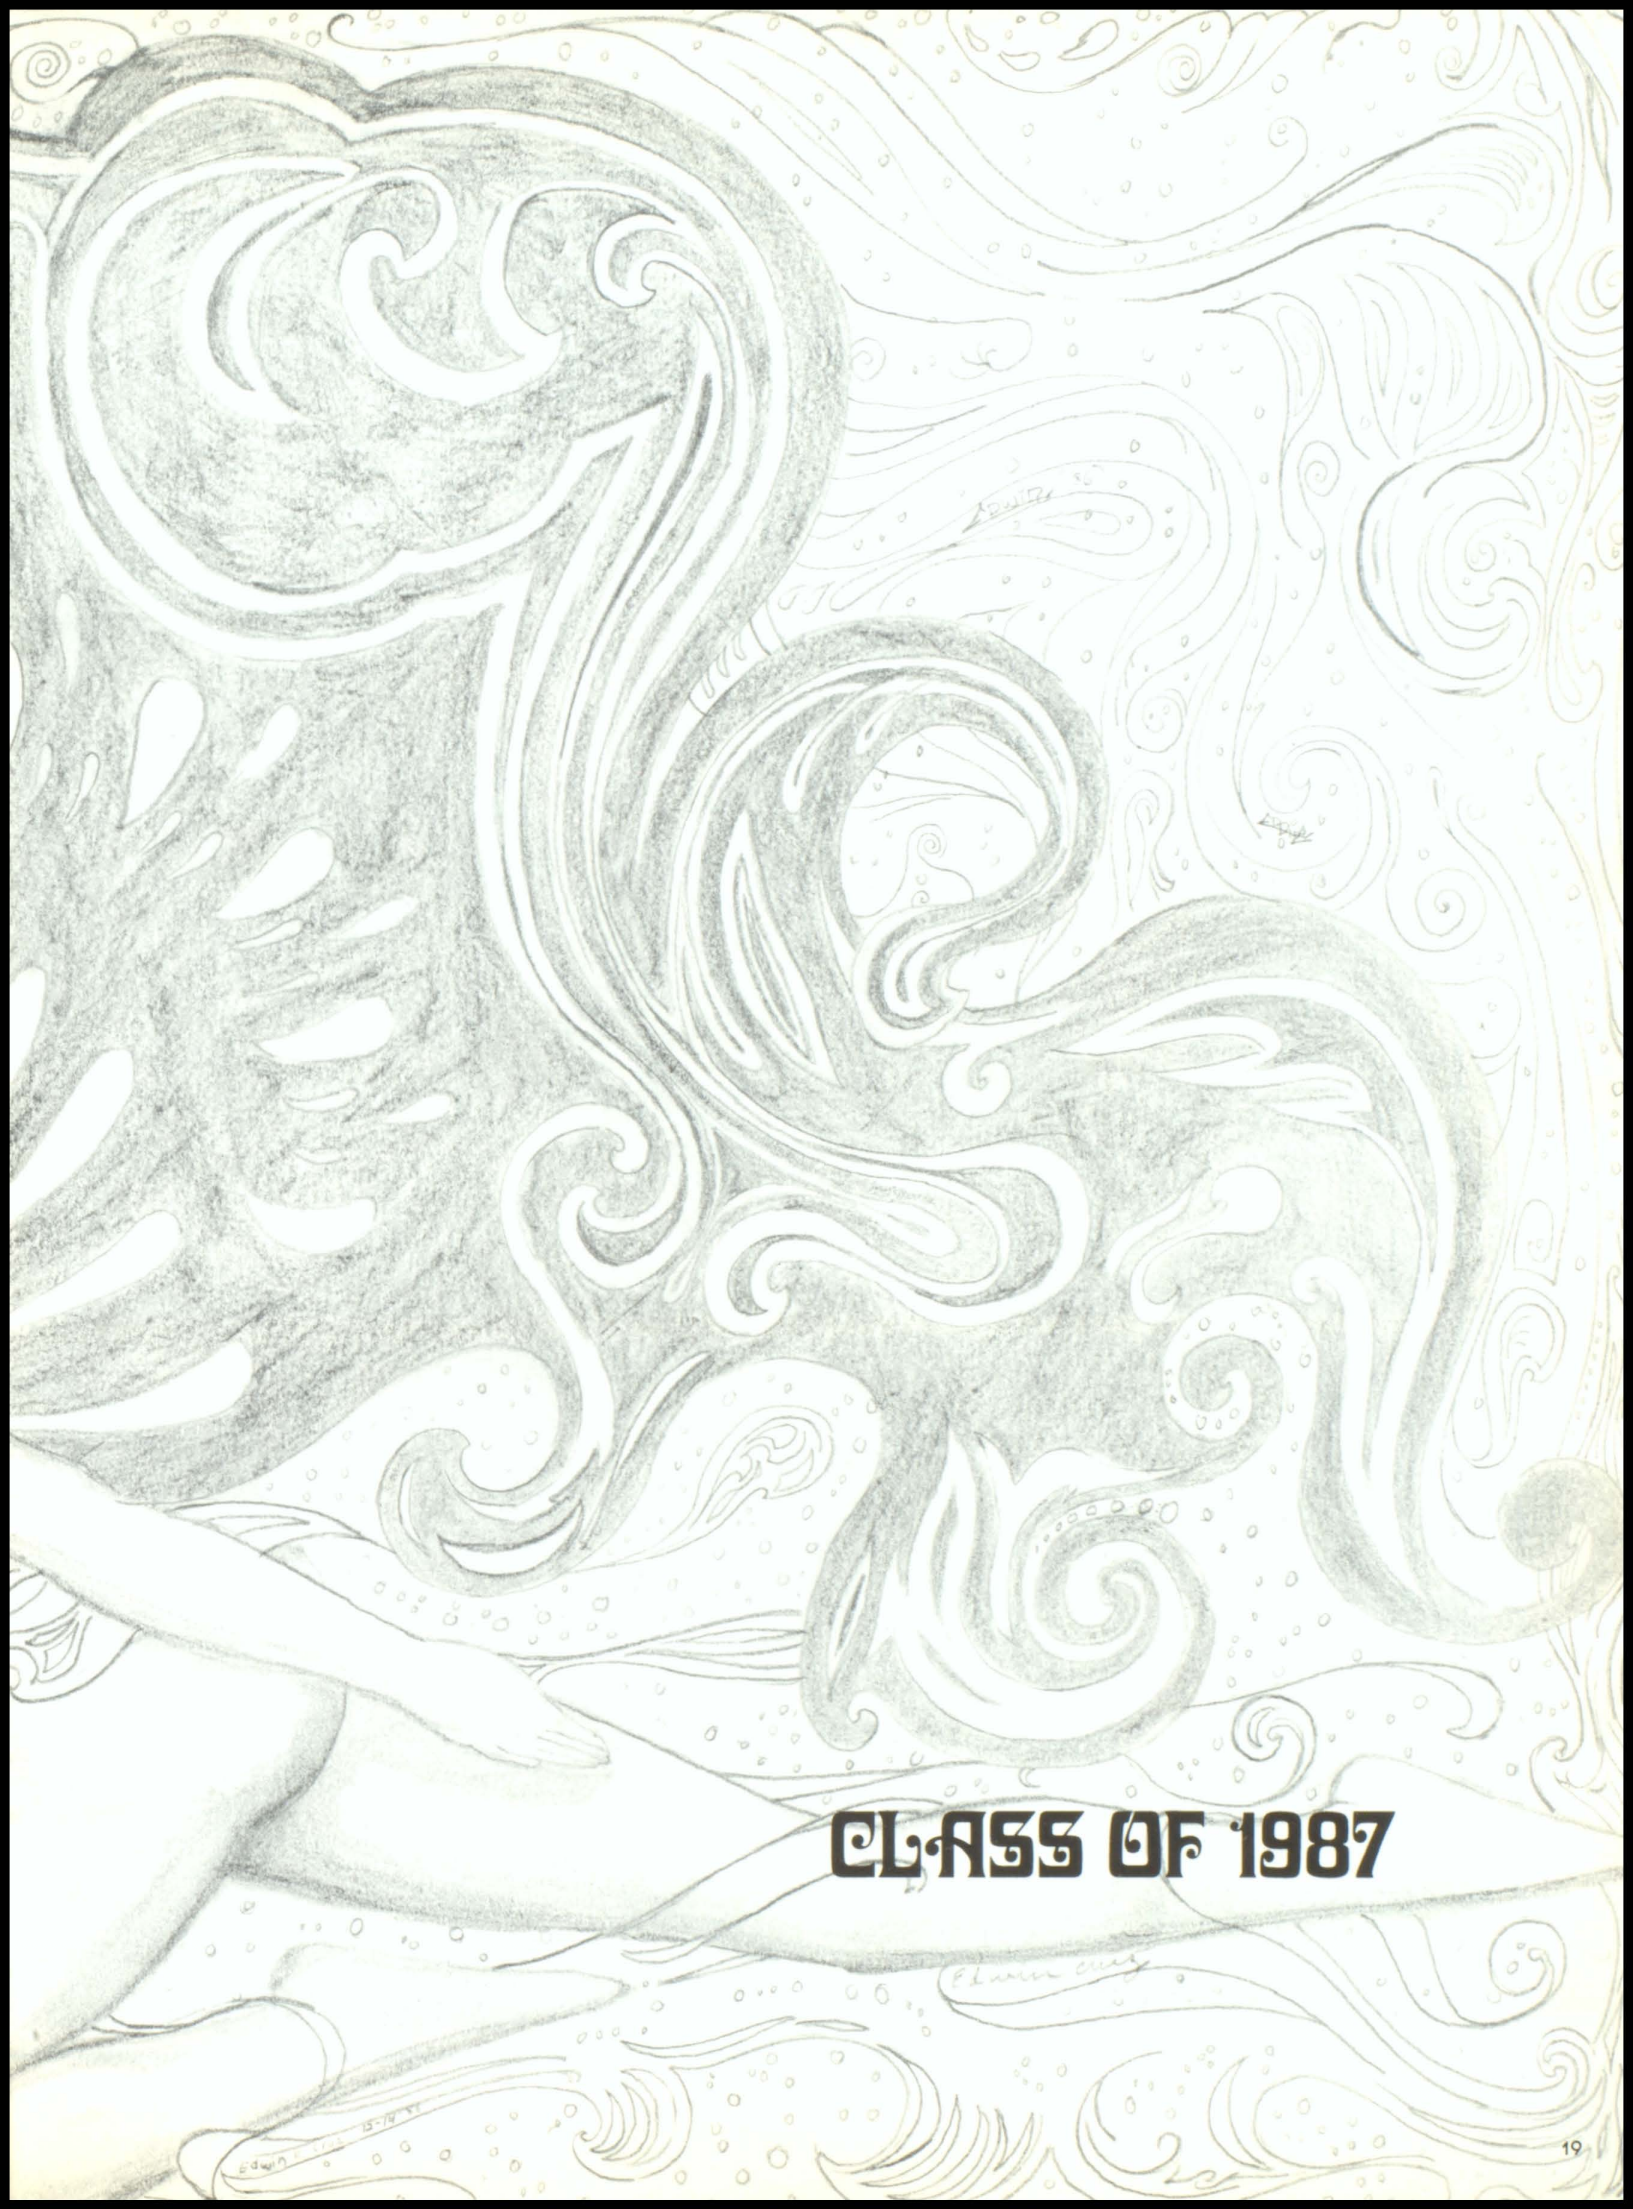

While you slept, the promise was unkept
But your fate was assured as the stars
Now you're free and the world has come to see
Just how proud and beautiful you are.

Black butterfly, sail across the waters
Tell your sons and daughters what the struggle brings
Black butterfly, set the skies on fire
Rise up even higher
So the ageless winds of time can catch your wings.

Let the current into your heart and send it soaring
Write your timeless message clear across the skies
So that all of us can read it and remember when we need it
And the dream concealing truth can never die.

Black butterfly, sail across the waters
Tell your sons and daughters what the struggle brings
Black butterfly, set the skies on fire
Rise up even higher
So the ageless winds of time can catch your wings.

"It's So Hard To Say Goodbye To Yesterday"

How do I say goodbye to what we had
The good times that made us laugh
Outweighed the bad.

I thought we got to see forever
But forever has blown away
It's so hard to say goodbye
To yesterday, to yesterday.

I don't know where this road
Is gonna lead to
All I know is where we've been
And what we've been through.

If it gets me to tomorrow
I hope it's worth all the pain
It's so hard to say goodbye
To yesterday, to yesterday.

And I'll take with me
These memories to be my sunshine
After the rain.
It's so hard to say goodbye
To yesterday, to yesterday.

ACTIVITIES

Winter Fair 1986... A Resounding Success

At the Winter Fair this year, there were performances by the Mass Chorus, Orchestra, Dance Ensemble and monologues by the Drama Department. The Art Department exhibited and sold their fabulous art works. The Student Council and Service Committee sold cakes and sodas. Overall, it was a resounding success.

A Class

In a class you see many different faces,
Comprised of different personalities, attitudes and races.

The seniors of Arts High are not like classes past,
For the class of '87, a new mold was cast

The class of '87 is like alphabet soup,
Every individual belongs to a certain group

These are your nerds and your cools,
There are the ones who break the rules

There are some who's laughter we all share,
There are some who just don't care

Let us not remember the old fights, arguments or petty jealousies,
But let us remember the good times we had
And let us cherish the memories.

Mr. Seymour C. Heck

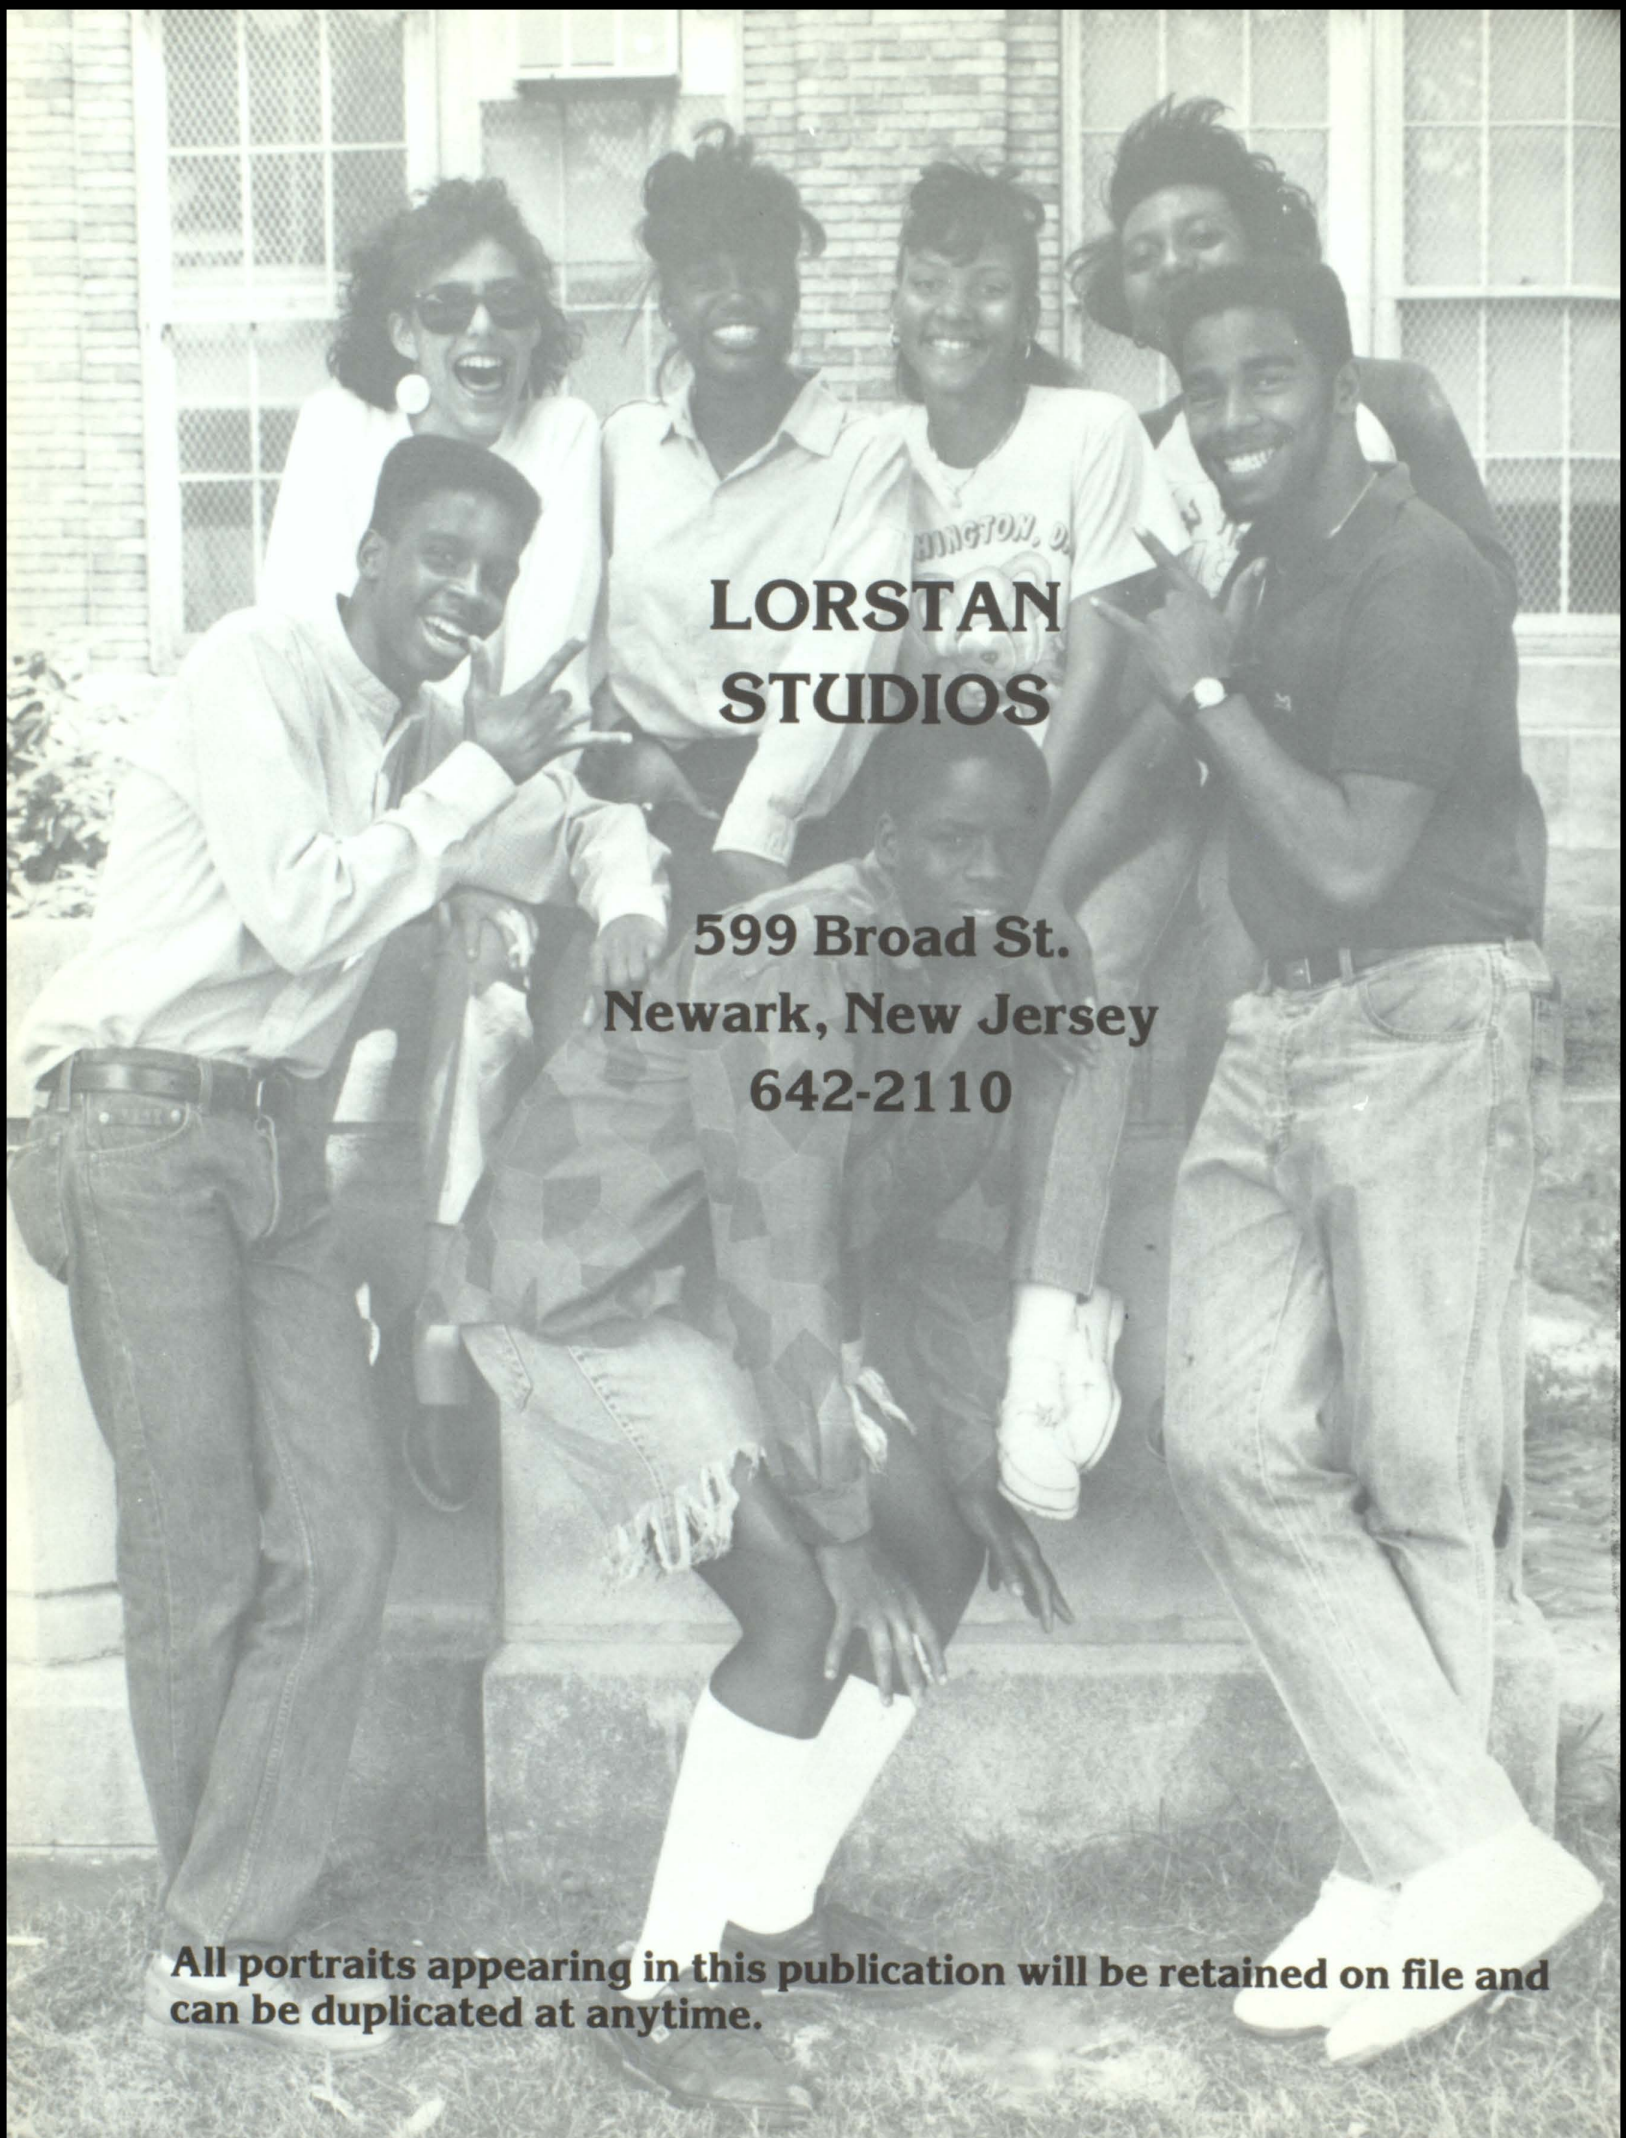

Mr. Seymour C. Heck, who started his teaching career in 1943 after receiving his degrees from Montclair State College and New York University, retired this year. Mr. Heck came to us as the English Department Chairman in 1964 after having taught at such schools as East Side and Ann Street Annex. His love of poetry and appreciation for the arts led those around him to gain a life filled with an abundance of knowledge. We wish Mr. Heck a healthy and happy retirement.

Mr. Thomas Muir

Mr. Thomas Muir, the head maintenance engineer, retired this year after having served the school system for some thirty-two years. We wish Mr. Muir the very best and hope that he enjoys his retirement to the fullest.

Mr. Louis Spindler
1920 — 1986

In 1920, a great man was born in Vienna, Austria. He was not a president, a scientist, nor a composer, but an admirable man nonetheless. This man was our own Mr. Louis Spindler.

Mr. Spindler came from a family of modest means. This fact is what motivated him to pursue the best education he knew possible. He always realized that by getting an education one could reach his/her fullest potential, despite one's background.

Realizing that education made him what he was, he always went out of his way to assist any student who needed his help whether the major was drama, music, or art. If you needed help with a foreign language, Mr. Spindler was there. If an art student needed assistance with a painting, he was also there. When students needed help with other subjects, Mr. Spindler was there teaching us how to manage our time wisely to get the best that our education had to offer.

Everything he did was because he cared and knew what was best for us. He thought of us as his adopted children, guiding us, teaching us and counseling us as a parent would. We too thought of him as an adopted father because of everything he did for us.

We as students appreciated his wisdom and his advice. We will carry and share that wisdom forever, thanks to a man who was so generous with the valuable things he treasured. We the class of 1987 salute him, Mr. Louis Spindler.

Thanks for the memories.
